

Late Antiquity or Byzantium:
The parting of the ways, or the ways that never parted?

Afternoon
Colloquium:
Saturday
30 April 2011

*MBI Al Jaber Auditorium,
Corpus Christi
College, Oxford*

- 1.30 pm Arnaldo Marcone (Università degli Studi di Roma 3):
*Questions of Date: Late antiquity and its periodization(s):
the open questions*
RESPONSE: Paul Stephenson (Durham)
- 3.00 pm Tea/coffee break
- 3.30 pm Peter Sarris (Cambridge):
Questions of Economy: Landowners, peasants and the state
RESPONSE: Éric Rebillard (Cornell University)
- 5.00 pm Judith Herrin (King's College London)
Questions of Culture: Christianization and the imperial legacy, east and west
RESPONSE: Yannis Papadogiannakis (Oxford)
- 6.30 pm Drinks Reception

The colloquium is free, but those wishing to attend should register with Neil McLynn <neil.mclynn@classics.ox.ac.uk>.

The colloquium is organized by Averil Cameron and Neil McLynn, with the support of Paul Pheby.

This is a joint event between the Oxford Centre for Late Antiquity (OCLA) and the Oxford Centre for Byzantine Research (OCBR)